

Scoring the 3rd National Action Plan: Did the U.S. Government include civil society's recommendations* on open government?

	Commitment	0	1	2	3	4	5
	Agency Decision-Making
	Agency Open Government Plans
	Beneficial Ownership Transparency
0	Classification Reform
Recommendations neither incorporated nor addressed	Declassification & Targeted Killing
1	Detainee Treatment
Recommendation concepts addressed	Ethics.gov
2	Ethics Disclosure
Recommendations minimally incorporated	FOIA
3	Foreign Assistance
Recommendations partially incorporated	Open Contracting
4	Pentagon & Nuclear Weapons Budget
Recommendations mostly incorporated	Privacy
5	Proactive Disclosure
Recommendations fully incorporated	Procurement Reform
	Records Management
	Secret Law
	Spending Transparency
	Surveillance Transparency
	Transparency & Participation in Trade Negotiations
	Whistleblowers

*As part of the Open Government Partnership, the United States Government must collaborate with civil society in creating the openness commitments in its National Action Plans. These scores, indicating the extent to which the Administration incorporated civil society's model commitments into its third Plan, were submitted by the openness groups that participated in the civil society Model Plan, available at: <http://www.openthegovernment.org/sites/default/files/Model%20Action%20Plan%20NAP%20V%201.3.pdf>